

ATTELL BEATEN BY RED WELCH

Englishman Clearly Earns Decision in Fifteen Rounds at Los Angeles.

SOMETHING WRONG ABOUT AMERICAN

Shy on His Usual Phenomenal Cleverness, and Blows Lack Force.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 26.—Fredie Welch outpointed and outfought Abe Attell in their fifteen-round fight here last night, and at the end of the fifteenth round the Englishman was declared the winner.

The undefeated featherweight champion met more than his match, and in every round the man from England was the master of the game.

Welch showed himself to be clever. His boxing, footwork, generalship, and defensive tactics were superb.

Attell never had a chance from the beginning of the fight to the finish. The doughty little champion seemingly lacked confidence, his blows lacked vigor, and his generalship was not what it has been.

While he fought bravely on the defensive, and rallied frequently against the lead of his opponent, he was not able to make a sufficient showing at any time to place the result in doubt.

Champ Offers Usual Excuses for Defeat

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 26.—"I gave away too much weight, and besides I injured my hand in training which interfered with my work," was the excuse given today by Abe Attell for the defeat he received at the hands of Freddie Welch, the game little Englishman. California's undefeated featherweight champion is today the first of the limelight and his laurels are now resting on the head of a foreigner. Attell made a sorry showing.

The Mt. Pleasant football team defeated the Cleveland Park Athletic Club at Cleveland Park yesterday afternoon by 11 to 0.

The game was played on both sides with the advantage slightly in favor of the Mt. Pleasant aggregation. The feature of the game was the line plunging of Macon for Mt. Pleasant, and the playing of C. Mess for the losers.

West Branch Plays Here Saturday. Both Fives Have Clean Records.

A basketball game between the fast five of the West Branch Y. M. C. A., of Baltimore, and the local association team, will be played in the Y. M. C. A. gym Saturday evening.

The West Enders, of Baltimore, have lost but one game this season and come to Washington next Saturday with the full expectation of cleaning up for the local team. The Y. M. C. A. five, of Washington, also has a clean sheet with five victories and the contest promises excellent sport.

The game will be called at 8:30 p. m. Washington. Positions. Baltimore.

FRILEY WINNER IN COUNTRY RUN

The Y. M. C. A. cross country run, held this morning, was won by M. J. Friley. E. P. Enzor was second, and J. M. Cutts, third.

The run started from the Y. M. C. A. building at 9 and at 9:28 the winner was back at the building, having covered the five-mile course. This is the first run of its kind that Washington has had for some time, and the results were entirely gratifying to the promoters. The run was made to get a line on the material on hand at the association, and the performances of the first three that finished stamped them as excellent distance men.

A dozen tied the scratch and nine finished. Those who finished were given in the order in which they returned to the building: Friley, Enzor, Cutts, Gilmore, Greeley, Preston, Miller, Foley.

LINTHICUM MAKES GOOD AT MICHIGAN

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 26.—The work of Harmon Linticum, the former Eastern High School football player, on the Michigan team this season, is the sensation of the year here.

The Washington man was not eligible to don a uniform until late in the season, and from the start he has made good. In both of the big games in which he participated, against Penn and Syracuse, he was the star performer. His fierce defensive play so seriously threatened the advance of the heavy Penn backs that before half of the first half had been played the Red and Black quarter discontinued tries around his back. This is Linticum's first year on the football team, although he has played for the last several seasons with the class eleven.

FOOTBALL HEROES HOLD THE STAGE

Three Big Games on Card in Washington This Afternoon.

Well, the turkey is ready, and so are all of the football eleven, which are slated for the big holiday games.

All preparations have been completed, and the various teams await the referee's whistle. This is Washington's gala football day. For the first time in many moons local enthusiasts are offered the opportunity of seeing three real gridiron games on the one day. Two of the contests are between college eleven and the other is between the two best teams in local military circles. All of the games should be good.

Two College Games.

Georgetown plays Washington and Lee at Georgetown Field at 3:30. They are in excellent trim, and on form the score will be close. Washington and Lee until its defeat by George Washington was considered a most likely contender for the Southern championship honors, and Georgetown should have to go the limit to win from the Virginia eleven.

Bucknell will try and stop the advance of the George Washington team out at American League Park. The game starts at 2:30. Bucknell comes with an excellent reputation. It holds wins over some of the best of the smaller colleges in the North, and should the Washington team annex the game another notch in its claim to the Southern championship will be recorded.

Other Contests.

The Engineer-Fort Monroe game is at Union League Park, and begins at 2:30. The two soldier eleven are down fine for the fray. This is the big game of the year for them, and every preparation has been made.

Pennsylvania plays Cornell this afternoon in Philadelphia. On dope Penn must be given the game. The Cornell squad is not in the best condition, while the recent performances of the big Penn team have been high class. It is not thought the Cornell line can withstand the heavy onslaught of the Penn backs.

WARWICKS IN TIE WITH MIDDY TEAM

Southeast Eleven Holds Heavy Navy Aggregation at Union Park.

The Warwicks and the Mayflower football eleven battled in a 0 to 0 game at Union League Park this morning.

The team work of both eleven was excellent, and showed the preparation for the battle. Almost the entire of the first half was a duel between the punter, Gorder, having a slight advantage over the Warwick booter. The feature of the game was the work of the fast Warwick backs, who ripped great holes in the heavy Mayflower line, but were unable on account of fumbles to shove the ball across the goal line.

CAPITOLS APPEAL TO LEAGUE AGAIN

Don't Like Ruling That Disputed Game Must Be Rolled Over.

TIMES SUGGESTION MAKING LARGE HIT

One-Hundred Single-Pin Bowling Idea Is Popular—List Nearly Complete.

That much discussed game between the Capitols and Bureaus is being agitated again.

The Navy quint, which was temporarily thrown out of the lead by giving the decision to the Bureaus, first protested the game, and now Captain Eckstein has requested a meeting of the league to reconsider its action in setting aside the rules and deciding that the game should be rolled over.

The point at issue is whether a player arriving late may bowl at the end of the game the frames he missed at the beginning. Helmerhs, of the Bureau team, delayed the starting fifteen minutes, and arrived at the alleys after three frames had been bowled. He was permitted to bowl three frames after the tenth frame, and the Bureau won.

Tournament Tackles.

The Times "Solitaire," or one-handed, tournament has made a big hit. Entries are coming in fast for the century mark of bills at the single pins, and the limit of sixty entries has almost been reached. It is predicted by many that there are enough experts at the single pins to furnish several clean states. Send in your entry—practice on No. 10.

This tournament has no connection whatever with the city association, but is in the hands of a committee of three, with C. E. Brown, chairman. Entries are being left at the Palace alleys with the "Flying Dutchman" or "Genial Gus."

In referring to last night's match between the Orientals and Potomacs, in the District League, in which the Orientals won the last two games, a morning paper stated "the result of this match gives the Pot Men the lead in the race with the Potomacs and Saengers tied for second." Before the match the standing was as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Orientals.....	11	4	.733
Pot Men.....	12	5	.706
Potomacs.....	9	6	.600

By losing one game the Orientals are now tied with the Pot Men for the first place, the standing being as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Orientals.....	12	5	.722
Pot Men.....	12	5	.722
Potomacs.....	10	8	.556

Looks as if the Orientals instead of the Potomacs is the team that is going to make the championship fight for those Times medals.

SITE OFFERED FOR NEW YALE STADIUM

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 26.—It is stated with authority today that a tract of land comprising some thirty acres, located in the town of Hamden, on the west side of Whitney avenue, is about to be offered to the Yale athletic management as a site for a stadium, at about $7,000.

A plan of the tract has been drawn up and submitted to Walter Camp. The Yale management decides to erect a stadium, another site at Hamden, located on Dixwell avenue, in what is known as Hamden Plains, is more likely to be chosen.

NO HANDSHAKING BEFORE THIS GO

Ketchel and Papke Say They Will Be Too Eager to Start.

By W. W. NAUGHTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—This afternoon at Coffroth's Mission street arena one of the greatest 150-pounders the Queensberry game has known, will strive for the middleweight championship of the world.

One of the men—Stanley Ketchel—is really a squab heavyweight. He has increased more than an inch in stature and many pounds in bulk during the past year.

Papke, on the other hand, is the beau ideal of a middleweight. At first glance he seems to be too chubby and compact to furnish several clean states. He is evenly distributed, and that the Illinois thunderbolt is a well-balanced ring athlete.

No Parlor Fight.

Papke, through his whirlwind methods, has been dubbed the "Illinois Thunderbolt." Not so many months ago a well-known ring follower dubbed Ketchel "the assassin." The men differ to some extent in style of handling themselves, but in one respect they are alike. The fight will be at break-neck speed.

Ketchel and Papke are undoubtedly the pick of American middleweights.

Now it is Ketchel's turn to be bitter, and the bitterness exhibited in their last fight will be more pronounced in today's battle.

Joseph O'Connor, manager of Ketchel, said: "Papke's statement that Ketchel struck him in Milwaukee before the handshake was all poppycock. They were fighting fully a minute and a half before Ketchel landed on him and knocked him down. In any case there will be no handshake at the Mission street arena today. Ketchel wants to fight this fellow and lick him, and he would not miss the chance if there was not a dollar in sight."

What They're There For.

Manager Jones also says there will be no handshake, at least after the going clanks.

"In our case it's not because we are sore at Ketchel, but because we don't believe in handshaking at that stage of the game," explained Jones. "When the men go to the center to be instructed by the referee they can shake hands if they wish. After they return to the corner and the bell signals them to start fighting they are supposed to fight and not shake hands."

From the foregoing it will be seen that here is one night where the principals should not shake hands without touching the tips of their gloves together in the customary way.

The pressure of Ketchel money yesterday caused a change in the odds. Papke, who is still favorite, selling at 10 to 7½ instead of 10 to 7.

Sunday School Figures Show Big Improvement, With Unions Ahead.

MT. PLEASANT TOPS IN TEAM AVERAGE

Fight for Places Waxes Warm. Bunn and Lansdale Best Individuals.

The first averages for the season 1908-09 of the Sunday School Bowling League shows a decided improvement over previous years and as the season grows older it is expected even better scores will be made.

Pleasant leads in team average and also has high game, 859. MAHMOUT TO MEET JENKINS TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—If Tom Jenkins, ex-champion wrestler of America, does not have turkey for dinner this afternoon, he will try to provide himself with a full meal tonight at Madison Square Garden, where he is billed to tackle Youssef Mahmoud, the star of the Sultan's long string of champions, in a finish catch-as-catch-can contest.

As this will be the first wrestling contest of any importance held in this city since the Jenkins-Gotch match in the Garden two years ago, followers of this strenuous sport are much excited over the outcome.

Although Jenkins has not been seen in public much of late, he has kept in first-class condition. He is wrestling instructor for the United States Government at the West Point Military Academy. Tom has mapped out quite a string of contests, and he is going to try to force Gotch into another match when the American champion returns to this country.
